

Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) Support for Apprentices and Trainees at Canberra Institute of Technology (CIT)

Overview

- Current climate
- Models of Support
- A successful program?
- Challenges
- What next?

Current Climate

1. COAG Targets
2. NCVER Research findings in 2006, 2010

Models of Support

CIT

- over 20 yrs of delivery of LLN support
- Over 15 VET areas
- Features
  - Whole class - working along side the VET deliverer, teaching as the VET deliverer with the expertise in LLN,
  - Withdrawal - ½ class, small group, individual
  - Frequency - Weekly, fortnightly, intensive block, on a needs basis
  - Flexibly – customised booklets, online
  - Additional classes outside hrs

What makes a successful program?

- Getting the right people involved
  - Industry awareness and support
  - Government support
  - Flexible approach
-
- “In an ideal world”

Challenges

- > Teachers
- > Access
- > Resources
- > Support from wider community – Employers, VET, Government
- > .
- > .
- > .

The Future

- > Place of on entry assessments
- > Elearning
- > .
- > .
- > .
- > .
- > .

Contact details

- > Pamela Owen
- > Education Manager
- > CIT Vocational College
- > Canberra Institute of Technology
- > Room B06, Block B, Southside Campus
- > Ainsworth St, Phillip
- > GPO Box 826, Canberra 2601
- > T (02) 6207 7932 F (02) 6207 4979
- > W www.cit.act.edu.au
- > E pamela.owen@cit.act.edu.au
- >
- > > Developing a skilled community